THE ATTENDANCE LARGE. About 4,000 persons preferred the races to the naval review yesterday, and went to Flizabeth see some fair sport. Too many horses were with-

There was so much water on the course when the first race was called that the three caravels might have sailed down the homestretch with ease and dispatch, Bushranger, Wheeler and Harvest were withdrawn. The horses that forded the stream were C. F. Sander's bay colt Blue Blood, C. Cornehlsen & Co.'s chestnut colt shelley Tuttle, the Brookwood Stable's bay colt Perrier Jonet, Jacob Ruppert's bay colt Chattanooga and the Madison Stable's chestnut filly Courtship (her first appearance). Courtship, ridden by Doggett, was the favorite at 8 to 5, but she had shoes on her feet instead of boats, and finished last. Chattanooga took the lead at the start, and, remaining in front all the way. won as he pleased by three lengths, Blue Blood second, a head before Shelley Tuttle. Sims rode the winner.

Onward and Fremont did not start in the second race, six furiongs. W. C. Daly's bay filly Arnica, W., H. Roller's chestnut filly Azrael and J. A. Mahoney's bay horse Prince Howard were the three mighty champions that remained to divide the purse—$100 for the first, $75 for the second.

Pleona, $9. bandless the visiting of the purse—$100 for the first, $75 for the second. In the lead, Ainlea next, Prince Howard last, Arnica had enough at the quarter, and exchanged places with the Prince. Azrael, never hurried, won, pulling up two lengths, Prince Howard ten lengths before Arnica. The first race was run in 1:20, this in 1:19.

Six started in the third race, half a mile, for two-year-olds: M. F. Dwyer's bay colt Calando, by Eolas out of Calash, and his brown colt Romeo, by Macaroon out of Juliette; the Keystone Stable's chestnut colt sunglimpse, by Falsetto out of Sungleam; the Oneck Stable's brown gelding Pirate Chief, by Pirate of Penzance out of Minnehaha Belle; the Empire Stable's brown colt by Muscovy out of E'aine, and the Madison Stable's chestnut filly Kentigerns, by Greenland out of Edisto. Kentigerna was backed by shrewd men for two reasons, namely, her sire, Greenland, was a great mud horse, and she was ridden by McDermoit, the eleverest lightweight of the day. When this boy began riding he was too poor to buy a pair of breeches. A friend helped him out in that respect, and he has ever been grateful. By diligence and economy he has accumulated a fortune estimated at $100,000. It is owns a fine place near Hartford. Kentigerna was backed down from 10 and 12 to 1 to 6 to 1.

After a delay of twenty minutes the fing fell with the Dwyer pair sandwiching the field, Calando in front, Remeo in the rear. He was a most unhappy Romeo without his Juliet and ran last all the way. Calando was joined at the first furlong post by Kentigerna, who, after racing him off his feaway in the stretch and won in impressive style by and a half lengths, Sunglimpse second, two lenghts before Pirate Chief. Time, 9:51 3-4. Mr. Dwyer made no declaration, but the know-it-alls made Calando the favorite at 12 to 5. Calando day morning took pessession of the Finance Comhas not the fondness for mud that his sire had.

R. Bradley's Elitzen and J. E. Dyer's Sykeston.

Daly declared to win with Terriffer, who carried 114 pounds to Elitzen's 107, Fidelto's 100, Sykeston's 110.

THE SEIZURE DECLARED TO BE ILLEGAL.

The New-Jersey Jockey Club yesterday served notice on Sheriff Hicks that the selzure made on Wednesday by the Sheriff of thirteen horses in Michael Dwyer's stables was illegal, as the horses did not belong to Mr. Dwyer, but to other persons. Sheriff Hicks has informed James Steen, who had the attachment sworn out, that unless he indomnify the Sheriff for the amount of the lay, by giving indemnify the Sheriff for the amount of the levy by giving bonds to protect the Sheriff in his action, the horses would be returned to the jockey club. A deputy sheriff is en guard at Dwyer's stable to prevent any of the horses being

A FILLY BY SALVATOR OUT OF FIRENZI. J. P. Hargin, in Sacramento County, Rancho del Pres, announced to-day the birth of a bay filly out of the terf queen Facuzi by the great Salvator. Among local sportsmen it is regarded as an occurrence of no small importance, tor from its inheritance on both sides the filly should be a marvel for speed. It is Firenzi's first foal, and the Rancho del Paso people are full of pride over the fact that wich a distinguished youngster has been born on California soil. They say that the fully will have a name that will indicate her place of birth.

A QUESTION OF WEAPONS.

From The Washington Star. Judge "Sam" Rice, of Montgomery, was, even be-fore Sumter had been fired upon, one of the hottest of Whales was interrupted Wednesday by the approach of the Southern Parific steamer El Norte. There were 100 whales in the procession when the El Norte hove in sight. There was no keeping those silly whales in order after the trim El Norte appeared. They greeted the steamer with a salute of a hundred waterspouts, and blew forth liquid symphonies. It is not assume thing to see 100 whales out for a turn about Hatters, and the steamer's crew was greatly surprised at the sight.

"Really now," said the chief engineer, "I do not know what to say, but I do not think that those black lish could have been whales. They might have been porpoises."

In order the deen fired upon, one of the hottest of Secressionists, and, by the way, was, after the war, a tender of the Republicans in the State, and vas a mornizated for Congress by them and defeated by Colonel Herbert. While inclining it was reprired to surprise day on the stump: "Why, we can while these Yankeess with poppens." He was making one of his Republican specifies in a country town after the war, when he was interrupted by a listener, who proved to be an ex-Confederate, "Look here," the latter questioned, "ain't you the fellow who told us in "61 that we could whip them Yankees with poppins:" The question raised a shout of derision, which gave the species rime to recover. "Yas, I am the man who told you that," he reforted, "but, d— 'em, they wouldn't fight us that way."
